

Interlocal Agreement for Bell County Aquifer Storage & Recovery (ASR) Study

Presented by

Brad Brunett

Central & Lower Basin Regional Manager

Study Participants

- Bell County
- Clearwater Underground Water Conservation District
- Brazos River Authority
- City of Temple
- Bell County Water Control and Improvement District #1
- Central Texas Water Supply Corporation
- City of Belton
- City of Rogers
- Fort Hood

Scope & Budget

- Phase 1 ($25,000)
 - Initial Assessment of ASR Potential at up to 10 Locations
- Phase 2 ($25,000)
 - Identify Top Four Locations for ASR Facilities
 - Groundwater Conservation District Considerations for Monitoring & Regulation of ASR Projects
- Phase 3 ($45,000)
 - Perform Groundwater Modeling of ASR Operations
 - Prepare Report

“BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Directors of the Brazos River Authority hereby authorizes the General Manager/CEO to enter into an Interlocal Agreement with Bell County and other local entities to collectively fund and evaluate Aquifer Storage and Recovery in Bell County, with the total Brazos River Authority contribution in an amount not to exceed $15,000.”

Brazos River Authority

Brazos

— ★ —
RIVER AUTHORITY