VENDOR COMPLIANCE TO STATE LAW

Section 2252.002, Texas Government Code, provides that, in order to be awarded a contract as low bidder, non-resident bidders (out-of-state contractors whose corporate offices or principal place of business are outside of the State of Texas) bid projects for construction, improvements, supplies or services in Texas at an amount lower than the lowest Texas resident bidder by the same amount that a Texas resident bidder would be required to underbid a non-resident bidder in order to obtain a comparable contract in the State in which the non-resident's principal place of business is located. The appropriate blanks in Section A must be filled out by all out-of-state or non-resident bidders in order for your bid to meet specifications. The failure of out-of-state or non-resident contractors to do so will automatically disqualify that bidder. Resident bidders must check the box in Section B.

If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

General Instructions

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
 - Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
 - Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
 - Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
 - Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
 - Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
 - Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
 - Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)
- Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States.

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items.

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 24% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships, earlier.

What is FATCA Reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account (other than an account maintained by a foreign financial institution (FFI)), list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9. If you are providing Form W-9 to an FFI to document a joint account, each holder of the account that is a U.S. person must provide a Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note: ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or “doing business as” (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C corporation, or S corporation. Enter the entity’s name as shown on the entity’s tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a “disregarded entity.” See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner’s name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner’s name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity’s name on line 2, “Business name/disregarded entity name.” If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box on line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box on line 3.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

Note: You may wish to consult with the financial institution requesting this form to determine whether the FATCA code and/or exempt payee code should be completed.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requester already has on file, write NEW at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.SSA.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/Businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. Go to www.irs.gov/Forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or SS-4 mailed to you within 10 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983.

You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983.

You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions.

You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABLE accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Pub. 5027, Identity Theft Information for Taxpayers.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at spam@uce.gov or report them at www.ftc.gov/complaint. You can contact the FTC at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 877-IDTHEFT (877-438-4338). If you have been the victim of identity theft, see www.IdentityTheft.gov and Pub. 5027.

PURCHASE CONTRACT

In consideration of the mutual promises as set forth below, this Purchase Contract (“Contract”) is made and entered into this ____ day of _____, 2018 (“Effective Date”), by and between _____ (“VENDOR”) with a mailing address of _____ and the Brazos River Authority (“BRA”), 4600 Cobbs Drive, Waco, Texas 76710.

Recitals

WHEREAS, BRA desires to purchase Merchandise, as defined in Section I. below, and in accordance with the specifications and representations set forth in Exhibits “A” and “A-1”, attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein, and VENDOR desires to sell said Merchandise to BRA; and

WHEREAS, BRA agrees to pay for Merchandise as set forth in Exhibit “B”, attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein; and

WHEREAS, BRA and VENDOR agree to conform with all bid proposal documents, including the bid proposal, any addenda, and any bid responses (collectively “Bid Documents”), incorporated by reference herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises set forth herein, BRA and VENDOR agree as follows:

SECTION I. Supply of Merchandise

1.1 The VENDOR hereby agrees to fully comply with all “Product and Provision Requirements” specified in Exhibits “A” and “A-1”, and the Bid Documents. In the event of a conflict between this Contract (including Exhibits “A”, “A-1” and “B”) and the Bid Documents, this Contract shall control.

1.2 The term “Merchandise” as used herein shall mean both the products/goods to be provided by the VENDOR and services/tasks to be performed by the VENDOR in the provision of the products/goods, as set forth in Exhibits “A” and “A-1”.

1.3 In providing the Merchandise, the VENDOR shall provide all necessary labor, services, transportation, information, data, and all other means and items necessary to provide the Merchandise.

1.4 The VENDOR hereby covenants and agrees, as an independent contractor, to provide the Merchandise required in strict accordance with the terms and provisions of this Contract and in a manner consistent with the level of care and skill ordinarily exercised for similar services in the State of Texas.

SECTION II. Compensation

2.1 Payments for provision of the Merchandise contemplated by this Contract shall be in the amount and in accordance with the provisions set forth in Exhibit “B” and the Bid Documents.

2.2 Vendor shall submit an invoice after Merchandise is provided to BRA. All invoices shall be due and payable no less than thirty (30) days after receipt. It is expressly understood and agreed by the VENDOR that any compensation not specified in Exhibit “B”, shall require prior written approval by BRA. Additionally, any price increases must be requested not less than thirty (30) days prior to effective date of said price increase.

2.3 Nothing contained in this Contract shall require BRA to pay for any Merchandise that is unsatisfactory as determined by BRA or which is not submitted in compliance with the terms of this Contract. BRA will not be required to make any payments to the VENDOR, when the VENDOR is in default under this Contract, nor shall this paragraph constitute a waiver of any right, at law or in equity, which BRA may have if the VENDOR is in default, including the right to bring legal action for damages or for specific performance of this Contract. Waiver of any default under this Contract shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent default.

2.4 Nothing contained herein shall be construed as authorizing additional fees for provisions of the Merchandise.

2.5 The BRA is exempt from paying Texas sales taxes. VENDOR shall not charge BRA for such taxes. Proof of exemption is available upon request.

2.6 Payment for goods or services provided under this Contract shall not constitute acceptance thereof. The BRA may inspect and test such goods or services and reject any or all items that are, in the BRA’s sole judgment, nonconforming, defective or not in conformance with VENDOR’s warranty or any specifications or requirements. Goods rejected or supplies in excess of quantities ordered may be returned to Vendor at Vendor’s expense. Failure by the BRA to inspect and test the goods or services shall not relieve Vendor of responsibility.

SECTION III. Term

3.1 The term of this Contract shall be for a period of one (1) year, commencing on the Effective Date, and may be renewed by subsequent agreement of the parties for up to four (4) additional one (1) year periods, for a total potential term of five (5) years.

SECTION IV. Time for Performance

4.1 The VENDOR agrees to abide by any and all schedules or timing representations set forth in Exhibits “A” and “A-1” and the Bid Documents.

4.2 VENDOR specifically understands and agrees that VENDOR may be required to provide Merchandise on an “on call” basis, at the request of BRA. VENDOR shall comply with all such requests within five (5) working days of receiving the request. Requests by BRA for Merchandise pursuant to this Section may be given by telephone call or facsimile transmission.

4.3 If delivery of goods or services is not complete within the time specified, the BRA may, without liability and in addition to other rights and remedies, terminate the purchase by notice effective when received by VENDOR, as to goods not yet delivered or services not yet rendered, and the BRA may purchase substitute goods or services elsewhere and charge VENDOR for any additional expense incurred. Acceptance of any part of the Contract shall not bind the BRA to accept any future shipments nor deprive the BRA of the right to return goods already accepted.

SECTION V. Warranties

5.1 VENDOR warrants that all Merchandise provided or to be provided substantially conforms to the specifications set forth in Exhibits “A” and “A-1” and the Bid Documents.

5.2 VENDOR hereby warrants that all Merchandise provided or to be provided pursuant to this Contract is free from all liens, claims, or other encumbrances, and that VENDOR has title to all Merchandise provided or to be provided pursuant to this Contract.

5.3 VENDOR expressly warrants all goods delivered under this Contract to be free from defects in material and workmanship and to be of the quality, size and dimensions specified in Exhibits “A” and “A-1” and the Bid Documents.

5.4 All warranties shall not be waived by reason of the acceptance of the goods or payment therefore by the BRA.

5.5 VENDOR further warrants that VENDOR has reason to know the particular purpose for which BRA needs the Merchandise, and that all Merchandise provided to BRA pursuant to this Contract shall be merchantable and fit for the particular purpose of the BRA.

5.6 Additionally, Vendor shall provide written warranties beginning with the date the Merchandise is delivered to BRA, as further provided in Exhibits “A” and “A-1”.

SECTION VI. Termination

6.1 This Contract may be terminated at any time by BRA for any cause without penalty or liability. Upon receipt of such notice by BRA, the VENDOR shall immediately discontinue all services and actions on behalf of BRA. As soon as practicable after receipt of notice of termination, the VENDOR shall submit a statement, showing in detail the cost of Merchandise provided but not paid for under this Contract through the date of termination. BRA shall then pay the VENDOR promptly the accrued and unpaid amounts due for the Merchandise to the date of termination, to the extent the Merchandise is approved by BRA.

SECTION VII. Default

7.1 BRA may terminate this Contract without prejudice to any other remedy it may have when the VENDOR defaults in performance of any term of this Contract, or fails to provide the Merchandise in accordance with the terms of this Contract. On such termination, BRA may take whatever steps BRA deems expedient. On such default by the VENDOR, BRA may elect not to terminate the Contract, and in such event, BRA may make good the deficiency in which the default consists, and deduct the costs from the Contract sum to become due to the VENDOR.

SECTION VIII. Insurance

8.1 The VENDOR shall, at VENDOR'S sole expense maintain insurance coverage as set forth below:

i. General Liability

Bodily Injury:

Per Person: $ 500,000

Per Occurrence: $1,000,000

Property Damage: $1,000,000

Aggregate $2,000,000

ii. Automobile Liability $1,000,000 per claim/aggregate

iii. Workers' Compensation Statutory

iv. Pollution Liability $1,000,000 per claim/aggregate

8.2 The VENDOR shall not provide Merchandise under this Contract until the VENDOR has obtained all the insurance required under this Contract and such insurance as approved by BRA, nor shall the VENDOR allow any subcontractor to provide Merchandise on the VENDOR'S subcontract until all requisite insurance of the subcontractor has been obtained and approved by BRA. All required policies shall name BRA as an additional insured, except Workers' Compensation and Employers' Liability insurance (as applicable). As proof of VENDOR's insurance coverage, the VENDOR shall furnish to BRA valid certificates of insurance of the types and limits required herein, prior to providing Merchandise. In the event VENDOR's insurance coverage does not provide for automatic additional insured coverage, VENDOR shall provide BRA an additional insured endorsement along with its certificate. As proof of insurance coverage by the VENDOR's subcontractors, the VENDOR shall furnish to BRA such subcontractors' valid certificates of insurance of the types and limits required herein, including additional insured endorsements listing BRA as an additional insured under such policies. In addition, the required insurance coverage shall contain a provision that coverage afforded under the policies will not be materially changed or canceled without provision of thirty (30) days written notice to BRA. The insurance requirement shall remain in effect throughout the term of the Contract.

8.3 Concerning insurance to be furnished by the VENDOR, it is a condition precedent to acceptability thereof that:

- i. Any policy submitted shall not be subject to limitations, conditions or restrictions deemed inconsistent with the intent of the requirements to be fulfilled by the VENDOR; and
- ii. All policies are to be written through companies duly approved to transact that class of insurance in the State of Texas.

8.4 The VENDOR agrees to the following:

- i. The VENDOR hereby waives subrogation rights for loss to the damage to the extent same are covered by insurance. Insurers shall have the right to recovery or subrogation against BRA, it being the intention that the insurance policies shall protect all parties to the Contract and be primary coverage for all losses covered by the policies;
- ii. Companies issuing the insurance policies and the VENDOR shall have no recourse against BRA for payment of any premiums, or assessments for any deductible, as all such premiums are the sole responsibility and risk of the VENDOR.
- iii. Approval, disapproval or failure to act by BRA regarding any insurance supplied by the VENDOR (or any subcontractors) shall not relieve VENDOR of full responsibility or liability, if any, for damages and accidents as set forth in the Contract. Neither shall the insolvency or denial of liability by the insurance company exonerate the VENDOR from liability.
- iv. No special payments shall be made for any insurance that the VENDOR and subcontractors, if any, are required to carry; all are included in the Contract price and the Contract unit prices; and
- v. Any of the insurance policies required under this section may be written in combination with any of the others, where legally permitted, but none of the specified limits may be lowered thereby.

SECTION IX. No Third Party Beneficiary

9.1 No claim as a third-party beneficiary under this Contract by any person, firm, or corporation shall be made or be valid against the BRA, and the BRA shall not be liable for or be held to pay any money to any such person.

SECTION X. Successors and Assigns

10.1 The VENDOR shall not assign this Contract in whole or part, assign any of its rights or obligations under this Contract, without the prior, expressed written consent of the BRA. Any attempt or purported assignment by the VENDOR without the BRA's approval shall be void and of no force and effect and shall constitute a default under this Contract.

SECTION XI. Risk of Loss

11.1 BRA shall not be liable for any loss or damage to, or destruction of the Merchandise, irrespective of the cause thereof, prior to the actual receipt and custody of such Merchandise by BRA at the location specified for delivery.

SECTION XII. Liability

12.1 Acceptance of the Merchandise by BRA shall not constitute nor be deemed a release of the responsibility and liability of the VENDOR, its employees, agents, assigns or subcontractors for the provision of the Merchandise contemplated by this Contract.

SECTION XIII. Indemnification

13.1 THE VENDOR SHALL COMPLY WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF ALL APPLICABLE LAWS, RULES, AND REGULATIONS AND SHALL EXONERATE, INDEMNIFY AND HOLD HARMLESS THE BRA FROM ANY AND ALL LIABILITY OR DAMAGES RESULTING FROM FAILURE TO DO SO.

13.2 IN ADDITION, THE VENDOR AGREES TO KEEP, SAVE AND HOLD BRA HARMLESS FROM ANY AND ALL ACTIONS, LIABILITIES, DAMAGES, JUDGMENTS, COSTS AND EXPENSES INCLUDING REASONABLE ATTORNEY'S FEES, IN CASE AN ACTION IS FILED OR DOES IN ANY WAY ACCRUE AGAINST BRA, ITS OFFICIALS, OFFICERS, AND EMPLOYEES IN CONSEQUENCE OF THIS CONTRACT FOR ANY NEGLIGENT ACT OR OMISSION OF THE VENDOR IN THE PROVISION OF MERCHANDISE UNDER THIS CONTRACT, OR THAT MAY RESULT FROM THE CARELESSNESS OR LACK OF SKILL OF THE VENDOR OR THE VENDOR'S AGENTS, CONTRACTORS, ASSIGNS OR EMPLOYEES. IN THE EVENT A JUDGMENT IS RECOVERED AGAINST BRA FOR ANY SUCH LIABILITY, COSTS OR EXPENSES, SUCH JUDGMENT SHALL BE CONCLUSIVE AGAINST THE VENDOR.

13.3 IT IS SPECIFICALLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED BY THE VENDOR THAT SUCH INDEMNITY IS INDEMNITY BY THE VENDOR TO INDEMNIFY AND PROTECT BRA FROM LIABILITY, CLAIMS, SUITS, LOSSES, DAMAGES OR CAUSES OF ACTION CAUSED BY OR RESULTING FROM AN ACT OF NEGLIGENCE, INTENTIONAL TORT, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY INFRINGEMENT, OR FAILURE TO PAY A SUBCONTRACTOR OR SUPPLIER COMMITTED BY THE VENDOR, THE VENDOR'S AGENT, CONSULTANT UNDER CONTRACT, OR ANOTHER ENTITY OVER WHICH THE VENDOR EXERCISES CONTROL. BRA AGREES TO GIVE VENDOR PROMPT NOTICE OF ANY CLAIM, CONTROL OF THE DEFENSE OR SETTLEMENT OF THAT CLAIM AND REASONABLE ASSISTANCE AND INFORMATION RELATED TO THE CLAIM.

SECTION XIV. Confidentiality

14.1 During the performance of this Contract, the VENDOR has or will have access to confidential or proprietary information belonging to BRA. The VENDOR herein agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the information received from BRA and information derived from the provision of the Merchandise.

14.2 This obligation shall not apply to information already in the public domain or to disclosures required by law, including the Texas Public Information Act.

SECTION XV. Severability

15.1 If any of the terms, sections subsections, sentences, clauses, phrases, provisions, covenants or conditions of this Contract are for any reason held to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, phrases, provisions, covenants, or conditions of this Contract shall remain in force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated.

SECTION XVI. Independent Contractor

16.1 The VENDOR covenants and agrees that VENDOR is an independent contractor and not an officer, agent, servant or employee of BRA. The VENDOR hereby acknowledges that it shall have exclusive control of and exclusive right to control the details of the provision of the Merchandise, performed hereunder, and all persons performing same, and shall be liable for the acts and omissions of its officers, agents, employees, and subcontractors.

16.2 In addition, the VENDOR agrees that the doctrine of respondeat superior shall not apply as between BRA and the Vendor and nothing herein shall be construed as creating a partnership or joint enterprise between BRA and the VENDOR.

SECTION XVII. Disclosure

17.1 By signature of this Contract, the VENDOR acknowledges to BRA that VENDOR has made full disclosure in writing of any existing conflicts of interest or potential conflicts of interest.

17.2 The VENDOR further agrees that VENDOR will make disclosure in writing of any conflicts of interest, which develop subsequent to the signing of this Contract and prior to final payment under the Contract.

SECTION XVIII. Compliance with Laws

18.1 The VENDOR shall at all times observe and comply with all the provisions of the laws of the State of Texas and Federal laws, rules and regulations which in any manner limit, control, or apply to the actions or operations of the VENDOR, its subcontractors, employees, agents or servants, who are engaged in the provision of Merchandise.

SECTION XIX. Venue

19.1 The parties to this Contract agree and covenant that this Contract will be enforceable in McLennan County, Texas; and that if legal action is necessary to enforce this Contract, exclusive venue will lie in McLennan County, Texas.

SECTION XX. Entire Agreement

20.1 This Contract sets forth the entire agreement between the BRA and the VENDOR with respect to the provision of the Merchandise and the payment of the Contract price therefore, and there are no other understandings or agreements, oral or written, between the BRA and the VENDOR with respect to the Merchandise and the compensation therefore, nor was the making and execution of this Contract induced by any representation, statement, warranty, agreement, or action other than those expressed or explicitly referenced herein.

SECTION XXI. Amendments

21.1 No modification, addition, deletion, revision, alteration or other change to this Contract shall be effective unless and until such change is reduced to writing and executed by the BRA and the VENDOR.

SECTION XXII. Headings

22.1 The headings of this Contract are for the convenience of reference only and shall not affect in any manner any of the terms and conditions thereof.

SECTION XXIII. Remedies

23.1 No right or remedy granted herein or reserved to the parties is exclusive of any other right or remedy herein by law or equity provided or permitted but each shall be cumulative of every other right or remedy given hereunder.

23.2 No covenant or condition of this Contract may be waived without consent of the parties. Forbearance or indulgence by either party shall not constitute a waiver of any covenant or condition of this Contract.

SECTION XXIV. Review of Contract

24.1 The VENDOR has carefully examined, reviewed, and accepted this Contract and there are no discrepancies, errors, omissions, ambiguities or conflicts in this Contract that are material to the VENDOR's provision of the Merchandise, the contract price or contract schedule that have not been clarified in writing by the BRA to the satisfaction of the VENDOR.

SECTION XXV. Right to Audit

25.1 The VENDOR shall establish and maintain a reasonable accounting system that enables BRA to readily identify the VENDOR's assets, expenses, costs of goods, and use of funds. BRA and its authorized representatives shall have the right to audit, to examine, and to make copies of or extracts from all financial and related records (in whatever form they may be kept, whether written, electronic, or other) relating to or pertaining to this Contract kept by or under the control of the VENDOR, including, but not limited to those kept by the VENDOR, its employees, agents, assigns, successors, and subcontractors. Such records shall include, but not be limited to, accounting records, written policies and procedures; subcontract files (including proposals of successful and unsuccessful bidders, bid recaps, etc); all paid vouchers including those for out-of-pocket expenses; other reimbursement supported by invoices; ledgers; canceled checks; deposit slips; bank statements; journals; original estimates; estimating work sheets; Contract amendments and change order files; backcharge logs and supporting documentation; insurance documents; payroll documents; timesheets; memoranda; and correspondence.

25.2 The VENDOR shall, at all times during the term of this Contract and for a period of ten years after the completion of this Contract, maintain such records, together with such supporting or underlying documents and materials. The VENDOR shall at any time requested by BRA, whether during or after completion of this Contract, and at the VENDOR's own expense make such records available for inspection and audit (including copies and extracts of records as required) by BRA. Such records shall be made available to BRA during normal business hours at the VENDOR's office or place of business and subject to a three day written notice. In the event that no such location is available, then the financial records, together with the supporting or underlying documents and records, shall be made available for audit at a time and location that is convenient for BRA.

25.3 The VENDOR shall ensure BRA has these rights with the VENDOR's employees, agents, assigns, successors, and subcontractors, and the obligations of these rights shall be explicitly included in any subcontracts or agreements formed between the VENDOR and any subcontractors to the extent that those subcontracts or agreements relate to fulfillment of the VENDOR's obligations to BRA.

SECTION XXVI. Force Majeure

26.1 The BRA may delay delivery, performance, or acceptance of the goods or services ordered hereunder in the event of causes beyond its control. Vendor shall hold such goods or refrain from furnishing such services at the direction of the BRA, and Vendor shall deliver the goods when the cause effecting the delay is eliminated. The BRA shall be responsible only for Vendor's direct additional costs incurred by holding the goods or delaying performance of this Contract as the BRA requires. Causes beyond the BRA's control shall include, without limitation, government action or failure to act where required, strike or other labor trouble, fire or similar catastrophe, and severe weather or other acts of God.
